

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, KY.,

FRIDAY, 1 1 1 FEB. 1, 1859.

The women are gradually coming to the front. In this country there are 73 female lawyers, 2,492 doctors and 163 preachers.

A TENNESSEE man who was a government contractor for two years ago has just received a bill notice demanding payment due him.

Turk war clouds are not as black as they were. Perhaps Bismarck's digression is better. A dappled diplomat is an excellent substitute.

Once, with the German in sight's plus at long last over the world, words are sent via Atlantic cable. A shot from a war vessel in Samoa waters would do it.

The Indian Senate has announced a Republican member and ordered a new election in the Fort Wayne district on the ground that he had been elected by a majority in power for twenty-five years.

Turks are not enough colored delegations going to Indianapolis. If the colored men want recognition from the white Administration, they must be active and vigorous as the white office-seekers.

It will be great relief to Gen. Harrison and the correspondents when the 4th of March comes. The Cabinet members will have gone, they can settle down to the business of running the country together.

KULEKING in Ohio, who is known as White Capper, can not, it appears, be suppressed. There were no signs of him in his company at Jacksonville, Ill. Gov. Foraker secretly encouraging this thing?

The white man was still a wakeman to the fact that the sleeping cars on 150,000 miles of railroad are now owned by one company. No doubt the money necessary for this aggregation of wealth was furnished by the partners.

An effort having been made to secure a portrait of Mrs. Cleveland for the White House, the President wrote to the Secretary of State, the kindred intended, I hope, that both of us are opposed to the project that you could not show as greater consideration than by an entire abandonment of the scheme."

In now turns out that the Birmingham who publicly lynched a negro churchman has given up his street, to society. The reception was one of the most notable ever given to a man of the public appearance, selectness and general appointments. The formal decorations in the refreshment rooms were as plentiful as could be seen in Nashville for a long time. The reception was complimentary to Mrs. Judge Towles. The hall was crowded. Guests, from Mrs. Powells were: Mr. Lipscomb, Mrs. Reno, Mrs. Settle Mrs. Parker, Dr. Mrs. Fair, Mrs. Chapman, Miss Taylor, Mrs. Fall, Miss Dellow, Miss Brown, Miss Lindsey, Miss Marshall, Miss Wright, Miss Hovey, and the Misses Morris.—(Nashville Herald.)

The German version of the Samoan difficulty is that a number of German ships were being damaged by German forces sent to protect them, but were defeated by natives and their leaders of an American named Kline. Sec. of State Whitney denied that Kline is an American citizen, and sent Admiral Kemble to Samoa with instructions to demand the treaty rights and to co-operate with the representatives of the American Samoa government. The Samoans insisted with significant emphasis, that there is no objection in the several treaties, and particularly in the constitution of the islands, which characterize them. From the tenor of the official communication it is made evident that the American side is not in a frame of mind altogether amenable. The situation is complicated by the rest of the conflict, the German having lost fifty men. The tripartite association of the islands is also getting into trouble. There is to be little more than a plan of association among powers equally disposed of course, and quite ignorant of the nature of things. Germany must insist upon some request for her losses, and this will make the presentation of the military arrangements all the more difficult.

No Need of War.

Fairly viewing all the alleged difference and difficulties, the fair-minded reader will conclude that there is no need for the United States going to war with any other nation.

Bentlement about war, however, appeals to the pride and fears of the people, and justifies immense expenditures of the public's money.

The vast accumulating surplus in the Federal treasury must needs be looked after, and for several years to come there will be no way and means to use it, and war expenditures help to justify the schemers.

Our Coast Defenses.

Holding steady ships, &c., will not save us, and will hardly any failure to reduce tariff taxation. Let the American people alarmed and they will vote millions on millions for home defense.

Capt. Stone has introduced a joint resolution providing for the meeting of the Constitutional Convention at Hickman on the first of April next, which occasion the centennial of the organization of constitutional government will be celebrated.

The great agent of the Paducah, Illinois and Rock Island railroads is now in New York for the purpose of consummating money arrangements to be made with the State of Kentucky this year if the local subscriptions are voted as expected. This looks like business.

Judge S. G. Sharp is appointed as the trial judge in the case of the Hickman County Treasurership. Judge Sharp has held the position by appointment for nearly a year, surrendering the county to the new treasurer on the first of April. The new treasurer owns the nomination to no particular man, but it does owe a debt to the people to have a good man. He will be a good man, and the public will be well satisfied.

Mr. H. Maxwell, dry-goods merchant, made an assignment of his business to Mr. W. C. Cowgill, who is a prominent citizen of Hickman. Mr. Cowgill is a man of high character and reputation.

Those who are going to Washington to the inauguration, March 4th, are advised to make all their arrangements with Mr. W. C. Cowgill, who is a man of high character and reputation.

ATTENTION, EVERYBODY!

Having bought out the Clark Laundry and Dry Goods, we are now in full operation.

Mr. W. C. Cowgill, druggist.

Mr. W. C. Cowgill, druggist, has recently located in Hickman. He is a man of high character and reputation.

Attention is directed to the law case of Mr. Sam'l L. Isbell, who is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and a man of great poesy and strict integrity of character.

He has a large amount of experience in the law, and is a man of great ability.

The Levee and Railroad.

H. T. LEVEE.

Editor Courier.

It is evidently the opinion of many, even by some prominent persons themselves, that the present levee will not be so strong as to hold the water back.

Most provisions, to be made for the safety of the levee,

will be made by the people of the community.

But the question is, will they be made in time?

It is evident that the

people of the community

want to have the

levee made as soon as possible.
